

Blog

« Back to Blog

« Older Entry | Newer Entry »

Book Review and Radio Interview: The Briton and The Dane:Concordia by Mary Ann Bernal

 Posted by pnaessensshow on January 1, 2013 at 3:00 AM

Categories

Book Review \(3\)

Radio Shows \(1\)

contact us

If you enjoy historical novels than Author Mary Ann Bernal's latest literary offering The Briton and The Dane: Concordia is a book you will want to add to your library and one you will read again and again and not be disappointed.

Ms. Bernal does an amazing job creating the characters and the scenes in the book are not only believable but these fictional people actually come alive on the page in such a way it's almost as if you are watching a movie.

The Briton and The Dane: Concordia is chock full of everything; suspense, intrigue, treachery, deceit and romance fill the pages of this wonderful book and the main character Concordia, the beautiful cunning 19 year old child of privilege plays a large role in all of it.

I enjoyed this book so much that I invited the author to appear on my syndicated radio program and you can listen to that interview here. Ms. Bernal also joined me on The Writers Showcase Podcast with Phil Naessens and you are invited to listen to that program here.

You can purchase The Briton and The Dane: Concordia beginning January 2, 2013 here.

Disclaimer: I received a free copy of The Briton and The Dane: Concordia from the author. In no way was I asked to offer a favorable review nor was this copy given to me as payment for an appearance on The Phil Naessens Show.

Categories: Book Review

Post a Comment

Name

Already a member? Sign In

Email

Message

0 Comments

Create a free website at Webs.com